

DESIGN YOUR OWN WEEKEND

a guide to everything fabulous in dunedin

fashion | beauty | accommodation | culture
events | food + drink | interviews | more

CONTENTS

3-4 // fashion FWD >>

5-7 // fashion FWD >> // events

8 // margarita robertson, NOM*d // interview

9-11 // cafés

12 // tanya carlson, CARLSON // interview

13-16 // restaurants

17 // charmaine reveley // interview

18-20 // bars

21 // sara munro, company of strangers // interview

22-23 // beauty

24 // donna tulloch, mild red // interview

25-26 // accommodation

27-28 // barbara brinsley // interview

29-30 // fashion retailers

31-32 // alyx lunn // interview

33-36 // fashion retailers

37 // other events in dunedin

38 // weekend packages

a guide to everything fabulous in dunedin

Like its sound, the Dunedin look has a distinct style. An aesthetic moulded by our neo-Gothic architecture, harbour and hills and scuddy skies. We are a city that has long attracted writers, artists, musicians, and designers. Creativity and non-conformity are part of our urban life force, nurtured and incubated by our city's student soul.

Come along to the Fashion FWD >> exhibition, hear an internationally-acclaimed fashion designer speak, and use this book to find the coolest bars, the best cafés, and the finest cuisine Dunedin has to offer while you are here. This is the inside guide to boutique shopping, the events we want to go to, and the people we love.

Join us in a wild shout to the world dressed in fabulousness.

27 MARCH >>
17 OCTOBER

OTAGOMUSEUM.NZ

[illegible]

D

OTAGO
POLYTECHNIC
Te Kura Matatini ki Otago

McMillan&Co.

From icons in New Zealand fashion to new global players in cool, from the internationally known iD Fashion Awards to the vast textile collection of Otago Museum, Dunedin is rolling out the black carpet.

Fashion FWD >> Disruption through Design is a celebration of fabulous frocks, beautiful couture and the voices of fashion disruptors.

The exhibition has been designed in-house, with a swathe of local and international collaborators. From iD Emerging Designer finalists from the last 16 years and garments from around the world, to our city's top designers, the Godmothers of Dunedin fashion – Margarita Robertson of NOM*d, Tanya Carlson of CARLSON, Sara Munro of Company of Strangers, Donna Tulloch of Mild Red, Charmaine Reveley – and including pieces from Otago Museum's vast textile collection, this fashion is brazen, chic, and defiant.

Fashion FWD's >> sole corporate sponsors are the generous McMillan&Co. Lawyers, and it is supported by Otago Polytechnic, as well as fashionistas from across the region. Join us in celebration of disruption, fashion and the fabulous.

DETAIL, ROXANNA ZAMANI

FASHION FWD EVENTS >>

THE GODMOTHERS OF FASHION

2pm, Saturday 27 March // Otago Museum

Margarita Robertson, Sara Munro, Tanya Carlson, Donna Tulloch and Charmaine Reveley are guests on a panel talk hosted by one of New Zealand's foremost dress and textile experts, Jane Malthus. Come and hear from Dunedin's top designers in one incredible discussion.

FASHION FRIDAY >> INSIDER'S TALK WITH MARGARITA ROBERTSON OF NOM*d

5.30pm, Friday 23 April // Otago Museum

Join Dunedin's queen of cool in what promises to be a fascinating discussion from one of the women who created 'the New Zealand look', hosted by Dr Natalie Smith, New Zealand fashion scholar.

FASHION FRIDAY >> FILM THE DEVIL WEARS PRADA

7.15pm, Friday 23 April // Otago Museum

FASHION FRIDAY >> INSIDER'S TALK WITH SARA MUNRO OF COMPANY OF STRANGERS

5.30pm, Friday 7 May // Otago Museum

Sara has seduced a cult following with her edgy yet romantic line of clothing and jewellery. Come and hear her talk about her unique style.

FASHION FRIDAY >> FILM DIOR AND I

7pm, Friday 7 May // Otago Museum

FASHION FRIDAY >> INSIDER'S TALK WITH TANYA CARLSON OF CARLSON

5.30pm, Friday 18 June // Otago Museum

Tanya has dressed celebrities, athletes, and broadcasters with her eponymous label and is joined by writer Amie Richardson, in a conversation about fashion and style.

FASHION FRIDAY >> FILM
THE TRUE COST

7pm, Friday 18 June // Otago Museum

ID EMERGING DESIGNER AWARDS

Saturday 19 June // Otago Museum

Runway show and international premier of the iD International Emerging Designer Awards finalists. For further information visit idfashion.co.nz.

FASHION FRIDAY >> INSIDER'S TALK WITH
DONNA TULLOCH OF MILD RED

5.30pm, Friday 23 July // Otago Museum

Sculpting and draping is Mild Red's signature, and fabric informs everything that this label, loved by Dunedin, does. If you love fabric and textiles, come and hear a virtuoso speak.

FASHION FRIDAY >> FILM
MCQUEEN

7pm, Friday 23 July // Otago Museum

FASHION FRIDAY >> INSIDER'S TALK WITH CHARMAINE REVELEY

5.30pm, Friday 27 August // Otago Museum

Ultra-feminine, luxurious, and sensual, Charmaine's designs delight the senses. In this talk she will discuss her brand and how her style has evolved.

FASHION FRIDAY >> FILM
YELLOW IS FORBIDDEN

7pm, Friday 27 August // Otago Museum

FASHION FRIDAY >> INSIDER'S TALK WITH OTAGO MUSEUM CURATORS

5.30pm, Friday 24 September // Otago Museum

Join the women who helped to create Fashion FWD >>, Moira White, Curator, Humanities, and Jane Malthus, Honorary Curator and one of the nation's leading experts in dress and textiles.

FASHION FRIDAY >> FILM
PRISCILLA, QUEEN OF THE DESERT

7pm, Friday 24 September // Otago Museum

FASHION FRIDAY >> INSIDER'S TALK
HOSTED BY MARGO BARTON, CREATOR OF ID
INTERNATIONAL EMERGING DESIGNER AWARDS

5.30pm, Friday 1 October // Otago Museum

Join selected iD Emerging Design Awards finalists in this discussion hosted by Dunedin fashion royalty, Margo Barton. Hear from designers how the awards helped to shape their careers and influence their design.

FASHION FRIDAY >> AFTER DARK >> BLACK OUT

7pm, Friday 15 October // Otago Museum

Only held three times a year, the Museum comes alive with entertainers, tattooists, DJs, fortune tellers, live interactions and more. This time we are celebrating fashion and style. It's Dunedin, so dress in black and be fabulous.

OTAGOMUSEUM.NZ

margarita robertson, NOM*d

nomdstore.com @nom_d

who is your fashion icon?

Rei Kawakubo of Comme des Garçons. It's because I have watched her progression from the 80s, when I first went to Japan. It is not just her design, but also her business acumen. Her collection, and look, is ageless. Even though she is in her seventies, she dresses as though she could be in her twenties.

what item of clothing could you not live without?

A t-shirt, because in this world, a good t-shirt can take you anywhere. It can be as casual or as dressed up as you want it to be.

if you could dress one person, who would it be?

Tilda Swinton, because it is not just her clothes, it is her personality. Her uniqueness shines through whatever she is wearing. And she can wear anything!

of the fashion FWD >> exhibition categories, which resonates with you and your brand?

Reinterpretation. Because we often reinterpret ideas from the past. From uniforms to traditional garments, knitwear, and men's suits. We reinterpret them in new ways to make something anew.

the swan

With retro-esque fittings, a sun-drenched courtyard, and live music at weekends, The Swan is nestled in the centre city down Dunedin's legendary Bath Street.

Delicious food that is locally sourced, craft beer, and coffee that is Dunedin roasted and ground; not to mention a great brunch.

23 bath street
@the_swan_cafe_bar

kiki beware

Snug in its heritage building and surrounded by some of Dunedin's finest boutique shopping, this is a kooky, quirky, and modern boutique café that's quickly become one of Dunedin's favourite haunts. Enjoy the renowned food or peruse the dedicated and diverse drinks menu.

344 george street
@kiki.beware

heritage coffee

Another gorgeous heritage building renovation houses this stylish café serving locally roasted espresso and vibrant café fare that caters to most dietary needs. Choose from alfresco seating inside, outside, or cosy intimate booths.

cnr vogel and jetty street
@heritage_coffee_dunedin

buster greens

This fabulous eatery is making a splash for its delicious, superfood-inspired menu and cool décor. Constantly humming with people, Buster Greens serves up some refreshing new takes on old classics.

466 george street
@bustergreensfoodroom

rhubarb

Whether you want a superb cup of coffee, a home-style cooked breakfast, mouth-watering lunch, divine treats, or the perfect wine, you need go no further than the top of the hill. It's a little bit different.

297 highgate, roslyn
@rhubarbnz kind company

Stunning plant-based food and botanical cocktails – what a combo.

The bright, airy space perfectly complements a menu of delicious and indulgent vegan and vegetarian dishes that are all real crowd-pleasers.

333 george street
@kindcompanynz tanya carlson, CARLSON

tanyacarlson-shop.co.nz @carlsonstore

who is your fashion icon?

Charles James, who I have unwaveringly admired since I was a young student. While his work is sculptural, it has an almost engineering precision to it, there's a sense of freedom in the way the cloth falls. To achieve that kind of balance is incredible.

what item of clothing could you not live without?

My wetsuit. I began surfing 15 years ago and it's an essential part of my wardrobe, especially when I'm surfing in the south. The wetsuit absolutely adheres to great design principles of form following function. In many ways, the wetsuit hasn't changed much over the years – like a classic garment – except for enhancements, such as fabric technology or zipless designs.

if you could dress one person, who would it be?

I would love to go back to the 50s and dress my grandmother, who I never had the chance to meet.

of the fashion FWD >> exhibition categories, which resonates with you and your brand?

Sculptural. It's always been a personal challenge when draping a garment to use as much of the fabric without cutting it. My approach is to use traditional tailoring techniques – such as darting, pleats and tucks – to create form and volume.

no. 7 balmac

One of the city's favourite dining spaces, this stylish spot uses local ingredients from Otago suppliers and the best, seasonal fresh produce. A beautiful outdoor area, and renowned for their baking and exceptional drinks list, this is a Dunedin foodie's go to, it is legendary.

7 balmacewen road
@no7balmac

good good

You can't go wrong with a decent burger and the team at Good Good are the masters. Another awesome addition to the Warehouse Precinct, this funky eatery channels the food truck vibe into an indoor space where a retro caravan/ burger servery takes pride of place. Great casual food in an amazing space.

22 vogel street
@goodgoodnz

titi

Hugely popular offering from one of Dunedin's most influential hospitality couples, titi is found within the stylish Hotel St Clair. Expect a dazzling 'trust the chef' menu with plenty of seasonal influences and sometimes surprising flavour combinations, with sea views to top it all off.

24 the esplanade
@titi_st.clair

vault 21

Serving up inspired, shared plates in the heart of Dunedin, the Vault 21 team believe the best way to enjoy their food is to share amongst your table. The only Dunedin restaurant boasting locusts as a menu item and winners of the Best Venison Dish at the Silver Fern Farms 2017 Master of Fine Cuisine awards.

21 the octagon
@vault21

moiety

A revelation in taste, Moiety is an exciting addition to Dunedin's Warehouse Precinct.

The ever-changing menu enlists surprising ingredients and features enticing snack options or a more decadent five-course degustation-style option. An undercurrent of Japanese flavours, and locally-sourced, seasonal ingredients.

42 queens gardens
@moietydunedin

emerson's taproom restaurant

It's all about stylish sociability here, with a full sharing plates menu, and options for everyone. The open, semi-industrial décor offers an alfresco option, so passers-by can see you enjoying the famous Emerson's beers and delicious fare. This is a Dunedin institution and a craft beer lover's dream.

70 anzac avenue
@emersonsbrewery

the esplanade

A piece of Italy perched on the beachfront in St Clair. The restaurant serves Med-style breakfasts, wood-fired pizza, exceptional antipasto, pasta and small plates, with a full-service bar. Come enjoy the casual, authentic Italian food and wander down the beachfront afterwards.

2 esplanade
@esplanade_dunedin

bacchus

Fine dining in Dunedin doesn't get any more centrally located than at this upstairs restaurant and wine bar in the Octagon. With extensive wine and whisky menus, Bacchus is an old Dunedin favourite.

12 the octagon, first floor @bacchuswinebardunedin

charmaine reveley

charmainereveley.co.nz
@charmainereveley

who is your fashion icon?

Coco Chanel; smart, feminist, a game changer. She used her disadvantages to her advantage and wasn't afraid to have her own direction in style completely.

what item of clothing could you not live without?

Sneakers! Comfort and style all in one. My latest love affair is my Chloé high-tops (worth more than my car, haha!). I spend more time on my feet than driving, so it is an investment.

if you could dress one person, who would it be?

Florence Welch, from Florence and the Machine. I love her realness, her free spirit, her sexy and feminine style, and that her look is her own.

of the fashion FWD >> exhibition categories, which resonates with you and your brand?

Transformation and Gender. Essentially from the outside my brand is very feminine, but it's not exclusively how I see it being worn by people. It's not how I wear it or dress. I love the idea that people who buy Charmaine Reveley can wear it and feel amazing yet have the confidence to experiment with the pieces and find their own way of expressing their own individualism, without the constraint of gender ideals.

woof!

Some would say Woof! is the hottest spot in Dunedin's social scene, but there are more important things to consider, such as their expertise in designing colourful and exotic cocktails. Try out their monthly creation of liquid relaxation, with a dish of the chef's delights on the side.

cnr moray place and lower stuart st @woof_dunedin

carousel lounge and rooftop bar

Head for the sophisticated vibe of comfort exuded by this popular spot. Cocktails are a specialty with a rooftop deck for dancing later in the evening, in a place that is always open till late. Come and view the stars and the people while enjoying the mixology and tunes.

141 stuart street
@carousel_bar_nz

pequeño lounge bar

A cosy European-style bar found down an alleyway, in what feels like a secret entrance, Pequeño is home to cool. It's made for lounging around, enjoying the underground atmosphere and stylish interior. There is smooth music, an incredible wine list and cocktails you will love.

50 princes street
@pequenoloungebar

new new new corporation

Love your beers fresh from the brewery? Head down to New New New's tap room to taste their latest flavour sensations. With a penchant for boundary breaking and edgy design in beer making, you will love this space, complete with beer garden and restaurant, that is hip and supremely fun.

218 crawford st
@newnewnewnz

zanzibar

Zanzibar boasts the finest selection of 120 gins from around the world, with a premium range of tonics to pair. Rotating craft beers, New Zealand wines, and delicious bar food, this comfortable city ambiance meets vibrant, worldly energy. Zanzibar is the bar you'll want to make your home away from home.

311 george street
@zanzibardunedin

mr fox lounge and tapas bar

Mr Fox is a subterranean den of cool, cocktails and tapas, tucked away below street level with a hidden courtyard space amongst the heritage buildings. Serving up signature 'foxtails' such as the Basil Brush Bramble, along with delicious titbits from the Bacchus kitchen upstairs, this is Dunedin's newest offering and we are all talking about it.

12 the octagon
@mrfoxbardunedin

sara munro, company of strangers

companyofstrangers.co.nz @companyofstrangers

who is your fashion icon?

Definitely Patti Smith. She is an icon, she has stayed true to herself. She is very androgynous, and usually wears a white shirt, a well-worn men's blazer and a pair of pants or jeans... Only they are so well chosen, usually Yohji or Ann Demeulemeester. She has truly worn them to tatters over time, she hasn't bought already distressed. She loves her things, and I love that.

what item of clothing could you not live without?

My vintage Guns N' Roses t-shirt I bought 20 years ago already pre-worn. I was pregnant with my daughter in it, now she steals it. I'm terrified she's going to lose it. It's perfectly worn, perfectly ugly, and perfectly oversized.

if you could dress one person, who would it be?

Alison Mosshart from The Kills – I love her. She wore our jewellery years ago, and since then I have been obsessed with her.

of the fashion FWD >> exhibition categories, which resonates with you and your brand?

Reinterpretation – nothing is original, everything is reinterpreted.

aart on st andrew hairdressers

For the latest in runway-inspired hair and styles, visit the award-winning team at Aart on St Andrew.

This is the team behind numerous fashion shows, editorials, and look books for Dunedin's exclusive designers. Aart on St Andrew is where to go if you want to come out looking chic. Aart's stylists travel around New Zealand and the world to upskill and train in the hottest new season's trends, and they recruit global talent to bring you the very best cutters and colourists available.

Aart is focused on sustainability and uses carbon zero products. They pride themselves on being better for your hair, your health, and our world.

75 st andrew street
@ aartonstandrew

kim tuliau-moeroa

Kim was the Bobbi Brown New Zealand Makeup Artist of the Year for 2019 & 2020 and is a Pro Artist for Bobbi Brown. Specialising in fresh, timeless looks. Whether you're wanting a customised lesson, or a full makeover, head to the Bobbi Brown counter in Dunedin and come out looking amazing.

farmers, 150 george st
@bbpro_kimtuliau.m

Credit: @acorncreativenz

erban spa

Erban Spa is an eastern-themed oasis of calm, specialising in making your massage, facial, or beauty treatment one to remember.

Take yourself somewhere quiet, luxurious and local to unwind and relax. Couples treatment room for dual bookings, and a wide range of divine treatments available.

50 city road
@erbanspanz

donna tulloch, mild red

mild-red.com
@mild_red_nz

who is your fashion icon?

Yohji Yamamoto, Issey Miyake. Mostly Japanese designers, due to their finishing and beautiful execution, they are so precise.

what item of clothing could you not live without?

I would always make something work. If I don't have it, the beauty in replacing it with something else is where I am at. For me, it would give me another reason to do something new.

if you could dress one person, who would it be?

I don't have a person/celebrity in mind that I would love to dress. I have never really thought like that. I would love to dress anyone really, anyone who can appreciate design. Making people feel good is what it's all about.

of the fashion FWD >> exhibition categories, which resonates with you and your brand?

For me it is sculptural. Working with one palette, darting and tucking to create a silhouette using light and shade is what I love doing. I am a monochromatic designer; using shades of a colour: matte black, shiny black, blue-blacks, brown-blacks and I do that with whatever colour I'm working with. I sculpt designs using leftover fabrics mixed with new, with a focus on how can you make that work for the next season.

fable dunedin

As Dunedin's only 5-star hotel, Fable Dunedin features 50 plush rooms, two incredible suites, bespoke dining experiences and impressive event spaces, all with world-class guest service and attention to detail to make every stay truly memorable.

310 princes street
@fablehotelsandresorts

distinction hotel

The Distinction Hotels Group has transformed the 1937 former Chief Post Office in Dunedin into an elegant 4½ star hotel, located in the rejuvenated and vibrant Warehouse Precinct. Ranked in the top 3 of all New Zealand hotels on TripAdvisor, there is also a restaurant, bar, private dining rooms, and on-site gym.

6 liverpool street
@distinction_dunedin

camp estate

A new country house with glamorous interiors set in a dramatic landscape. On Otago Peninsula, 500 metres from Larnach Castle, the five guest rooms all have welcoming gas fires and complimentary laptops. Breakfast and entry to Larnach Castle is included in the room rate.

larnach castle
100 camp road
@larnachcastle

ebb-dunedin

Located in the heart of Dunedin, Ebb is a modern boutique hotel that provides relaxed luxury. Inspired by the land, sea and sky that surround us, our contemporary neighbourhood hotel serves friends, locals and guests a slice of our unique way of life.

82 filleul street
@ebbdunedin

barbara brinsley

Barbara is undoubtedly Dunedin's fashion queen. Owner of one of the country's most coveted wardrobes, Barbara is one of the faces of Fashion FWD >>. A lover of design in all its forms, from art to fashion, to interior design and gardening. Barbara is who women want to be when they grow up. Fun, charming, and acerbic, Barbara's home and wardrobe spill over with creativity and beauty.

what is your style advice to women?

Always dress for climate and occasion. When travelling I always pack clothes that are flexible and adaptable, that you can dress up for winter temperatures and down during summer. Growing up on a farm meant dressing for the occasion was always important.

where is your favourite spot for dunedin shopping?

Recycle shops and all of them. I can't name a favourite because we have so many amazing ones in Dunedin and I look at everything in them as long as they're good quality. I found some beautiful Harrods cards the other day and some German camo pants that I sent to my grandson. It's all about quality, it doesn't matter if it's new or old.

where do you like to go when you are looking fabulous?

I stay at home and look fabulous. What a stupid question! Even when I'm in the garden I have a full face of makeup and always look tidy. I feel good and look good every time I step out my front door. I put my lipstick on in the morning. I smile in the mirror and I smile because I'm alive. I don't dress up for anyone else's enjoyment. I dress up for myself.

Credit: Nicola Wilhelmsen
@nicolafromthehelm

plume

A uniquely curated blend of sustainable, New Zealand made and international clothing labels since 1978. Owner, Margarita Robertson's impeccable edit of high-profile designers sits alongside their own internationally acclaimed brand, NOM*d. For upscale, truly interesting clothing, PLUME has the edge.

310 george street
@plumedunedin

company store

Visit the Company of Strangers flagship store of this effortlessly cool and exciting Dunedin-based label.

High fashion clothing, jewellery and leather goods as well as stocking a curated selection of sought-after New Zealand designers and international brands alike. Inspired by the creative, made for the creative, and proudly made in New Zealand.

320 george street
@companystore

mild red

Showcasing Mild Red collections and exclusive designs within a space where the traditional boundary between designer and customer has been removed. With premium-quality material combinations, sculptural yet timeless styles that are designed to last and combine with past and future collections.

1 york place
@mild_red_nz

charmaine reveley

Charmaine Reveley bridges the line between classic, feminine beauty and contemporary fashion to give entirely wearable, effortless pieces. Custom-made prints are always a strong element, and flattering cuts and a fresh sense of individual artistic sensibility make the Charmaine Reveley woman stand out.

263a george street
@charmainereveleystore

alyx lunn

Alyx is obsessed with fashion. She features on Dunedin's top breakfast radio show, The Hits, with her segment Fashion Fix, and has an Instagram, The Work Wardrobe Chronicles, where she celebrates all things style and the mana wāhine in our community. Alyx is Pasifika and proud, and she uses her platform to show that style isn't just what you see in a magazine, all women, of all shapes and shades, can be fierce and fashionable.

what is your style advice to women?

Style to me is a very personal thing. As we know confidence comes from things other than clothes, but if your outfit fits well and makes you feel comfortable all round, then that's an awesome place to start.

where is your favourite spot for dunedin shopping?

Chapman is my go-to for anything NZ designer high end. Shop on Carroll and the Hospice Op-Shop on Vogel, are two of my regular haunts. I am a religious thrifter!

where do you like to go when you are looking fabulous?

You can generally find me mincing about at Woof! for a cheeky Aperol. I adore Josh, Dudley and their team – such a breath of fresh air!

I also like to take myself to the DPAG, just to wander amongst the Hoteres, McCanns and Walters. I got married there in 2020, and have an absolute affinity to the space.

Credit: Erin Isaacs
@acorncreativenz | @papergardennz

hype

Founded in 1980, Hype has been turning heads in Dunedin for over 30 years.

Hype is an independent high-end fashion and lifestyle store selling superior quality New Zealand and Australian designers.

For beautiful designs, timeless elegance, and fun pieces come to Hype.

328 george street
@hypedunedin

slick willy's

Slick Willy's is a Dunedin institution. They opened in the 80s with a wide selection of men's and women's clothing, and have served generations of the stylish in Otago. Slick Willy's has a huge range of international and national brands with over 50 labels represented, there is so much in one store, from formal dresses to basic tees.

323a george street
@slickwillys

wander and sons

A collection of creative, lifestyle brands in fashion, homewares, and wellness goods, with a focus on natural ingredients, natural fibres, sustainability, and fairtrade practices. The independent design and craftsmanship will inspire you.

6 esplanade
@wanderandsons

chapman

Chapman is a high-end retail store bringing you quality streetwear and lifestyle brands for all your favourite clothes, shoes, jewellery, skincare, and perfume. Chapman produce their own quality knitwear brand made right here in Dunedin using a range of yarn including cotton, merino, cashmere and angora.

325 george street
@chapman_store

belle bird boutique

Belle Bird Boutique is a Dunedin shopping favourite!

Housing a select range of designer clothing, footwear, jewellery, perfume, cosmetics, eyewear, and homewares. Brands include; Kate Sylvester, Deadly Ponies, Meadowlark, Idae, Mina, Karen Walker, and much more.

327 george st
@bellebirdboutique

guild

GUILD is your go-to for locally designed fashion, jewellery, homewares, and gifts. GUILD is a not-for-profit and 90% of sales go directly back to the local maker; the store is staffed by the designers. By purchasing from GUILD, you are not only buying something beautiful, you are supporting Dunedin and its creative community.

145 stuart st
@guilddunedin

white by design

Nestled in the heart of Dunedin's 'Edinburgh Way', this beautiful Boutique showcases superb fashion labels including Sills, Briarwood, Wilson Trollope, Loobies Story, D'Elle, Scotch and Soda, Suture, Factor and many more. Enjoy Winter '21 collections in-store now.

334 george street
@white_by_design

otago museum shop

Otago Museum shop has a gift for everyone. The Shop sells the products of many local designers, makers, and artists, online and in-store.

Buy your Fashion FWD >> Disruption through Design catalogue, and augmented reality totes and t-shirts here.

419 great king street
shop.otagomuseum.nz @otagomuseumshop

other events in dunedin

Our Footsteps are all Entrances – Fringe Festival //
Poetry & Music // Saturday 27 March

Duo – Fringe Festival // Dance //
Saturday 27 March & Sunday 28 March

Yesterday // Musical Theatre // Sunday 28 March

NZ String Quartet // Classical Music // Saturday 10 April

The F Word // Musical Theatre // Saturday 10 April

Found in Translation // Music & Stories // Thursday 15 April

Emily Writes' Rants in the Dark // Theatre // Saturday 17 April

The Arboreal Aerialist // Aerial Dance // Tuesday 20 April & Wednesday 21 April

Crossing Genres – Dunedin Writers & Readers Festival //
Writer's Talk // Friday 7 May

The Language of Flowers – Dunedin Writers &
Readers Festival // Expert Talk // Saturday 8 May

Bravo Amici // Opera // Wednesday 26 May

Giselle // Ballet // Wednesday 9 June

The Firebird // Ballet // Saturday 21 August

Dine Dunedin // Food Festival // Friday 6 – Sunday 22 August

fashion FWD >> weekend package

- Fashion Friday insiders talk, late night exhibition access, and fashion film screening
- Two nights' accommodation at the Ebb-Dunedin (Friday and Saturday night). Mercedes return airport transfers
- Edwardian High Tea at Olveston House
- Three course dinner at Bacchus Wine Bar and Restaurant
- Fashion FWD >> cocktail at Mr Fox Lounge and Tapas Bar

23 – 25 April >> Sunday brunch at Ebb-Dunedin hosted by Margarita Robertson of NOM*d and exclusive shopping at Plume.

7 – 8 May >> Exclusive shopping and styling from Sara Munro at Company of Strangers.

*$758 p/p in a classic room (not including flights, inclusive of GST).
Please note each package is based on two people traveling together.*

fashion FWD >> local's package

- Fashion Friday insiders talk, late night exhibition access, and fashion film screening
- Edwardian High Tea at Olveston House
- Three course dinner at Bacchus Wine Bar and Restaurant
- Fashion FWD >> cocktail at Mr Fox Lounge and Tapas Bar

23 – 25 April >> Sunday brunch at Ebb-Dunedin hosted by Margarita Robertson of NOM*d and exclusive shopping at Plume.

7 – 8 May >> Exclusive shopping and styling from Sara Munro at Company of Strangers.

From $378 p/p (inclusive of GST).

Bespoke itineraries can be created.

Hannagan and Greive Travel Associates >> Alex Hannagan 107 Lower Stuart Street >> 0800 832 863

Call a ceasefire with expectations

At Unconditional Skincare Co. we believe that your skin is enough.
Powered by BLIS Q24®, our Live Probiotic Hydration Serum works with your skin, exactly as it is, to restore the health of your microbiome.

Unconditional
Skincare Co.®
Skin peace for all